

AIAG

ADVANCING MOBILITY

Tanya Bolden
VP of Supply Chain & Corporate Responsibility
February 2025

The World's Largest Global Industry Association

Covering thousands of locations and millions of member employees around the world

32 OEMs Worldwide

Advanced Mobility Manufacturers
- 14 Pure EV Companies
Commercial/Heavy Truck/Military
Aerospace
Sport

4400+ Direct & EV Suppliers

550 Large/Tier 1
3,575 Sub-Tiers
365 Diverse-Owned

400+ Indirect Members

Professional Services
Information Technology
Academia
Aftermarket
Trade Associations

AIAG Vision and Mission

Vision

AIAG is the leading mobility association where companies work collaboratively to drive down cost and complexity throughout the global supply chain.

Mission

To provide a neutral, legal, non-competitive forum for all mobility value chain participants to actively create innovative solutions to common issues developed by the industry, for the industry.

AIAG Board of Director Companies

AIAG Global Pure EV OEM Members

EV Battery Projects:

- Warehouse & Transportation

- Guidelines on best practices for EV Battery warehousing
- Company Contributions
  - Ford, GM, StarPlus, Stellantis, VW, Caterpillar, & Honda
- April 2025 - Publication Launch

EV Battery Safety Project

- New work group – starting March 2025
  - GM, Honda, Toyota
- Working with EV Battery expert to fast-track product development
- November 2025 – Product Launch

Contact us - supplychain@aiag.org